

Winter Tour 2016: St. Louis and Chicago

The New Blue traveled to the Midwest, hosted by Ginna Doyle ('17) and Sarah Householder ('18) in St. Louis and Chicago. Some of our performance venues included The Tavern of Fine Arts in St. Louis and the St. Louis Club, 27 Live Bar/Restaurant in Evanston, IL, and the Chicago Fine Arts Building, in a concert organized in conjunction with Yale Women, where we were cheered on by New Blue alumna Danielle Cassel ('92).

Annual Alumnae Reunion Dinner

Join The New Blue for our annual alumnae reunion dinner, hosted in New York City by alumna Victoria Hall-Palerm ('15) on Friday, February 26th. Official invitations were sent out via email, but if you know of alumnae who did not receive them, email our coordinator at katherine.kirk@yale.edu. We hope to see many of you there!

Singing Valentines

Once again it's that time of year: Valentine's Day. If you're looking for a special way to tell a loved one that you care, The New Blue will be delivering singing valentines in person on campus and via phone or Skype. Order or hear a sample of one of our six Valentine quartets, offered from 8am to 8pm on February 10-12 and on February 14, on our newly updated website.

Spring Tour 2016: London, England

This spring, the New Blue will be crossing the pond and touring in London, England, hometown of business manager Caroline Powers ('17), from March 12th through March 21st. Alumnae interested in donating towards our London tour fund can do so on our website's business tab. Any alumnae who are interested in seeing the New Blue or have performance venue recommendations for this coming March in London can reach out to either of our tour managers, Katie Kirk (katherine.kirk@yale.edu) and Caitlin Dermody (caitlin.dermody@yale.edu).
